THE UTTAR PRADESH ELECTRICITY REGULATORY COMMISSION

LUCKNOW

In the matter of:

Grant of Time extension for filing of an application for Annual Revenue Requirement for FY05 under section 24 of the Uttar Pradesh Electricity Reforms Act 1999 and in terms of Regulation 124 of U.P. Electricity Regulatory Commission (Conduct of Business) Regulation 2000.

And

In the matter of:

Noida Power Company Limited, Greater Noida.

Order

Section 10(a) of U P Electricity Reforms Act 1999 (The 'Act' henceforth), empowers the U.P. Electricity Regulatory Commission (herein referred as the "Commission") to determine the bulk and retail supply tariff of licensees operating in the State of Uttar Pradesh. Under Section 24(4) of the Act, read with Regulation 124 of U.P. Electricity Regulatory Commission (Conduct of Business) Regulation 2000, it is required that all licensees shall provide the Commission, between 15th December to 31st December each year, full details of its statements containing calculations for the ensuing financial year of the expected aggregate revenue for charges permitted by the Commission to recover from consumers. In other words, the Commission, under regulation 124 of its (Conduct of Business) Regulations 2000, has fixed the period between 15th December to 31st December every year for the licensee to file the expected aggregate revenue from charges under the currently approved tariff and the expected cost of providing services for ensuing financial year.

NPCL has prayed before the Commission for time extension up to 10th January 2004 for filing an application for Annual Revenue Requirement for FY05. The licensee has provided following reasons for seeking time extension:

- 1. That the petitioner humbly submits that while the details of filing the Aggregate Revenue Requirement for FY 2004-05 have been taken up, it will not be possible to complete the submission within the due date of December 31, 2003 due to unforeseen circumstances.*
- 2. That the Petitioner Company prays that it be permitted an extension of time upto January 10, 2004 so that it can submit all the necessary details in regard to its Aggregate Revenue Requirement for FY 2004-05 in due course by incorporating the relevant engineering, billing and financial data was will be necessary to compete the documentation.*

The Commission considered the petition filed by the licensee and the request for seeking time extension for filing ARR for FY05 till 10th January 2004 is granted.
