Order

Vikram Mahendra Vs. KESCO.

In this petition, the petitioner has challenged the order dated 11th January, 2003 of the appellate committee of the KESCO and requested the Commission to direct KESCO for delivering final bill.

In the hearing, the petitioner has submitted that KESCO has delivered final bill to him. The petitioner has challenged the order of the appellate committee mainly on the ground that he has not been provided the opportunity for representing his case by the appellate committee. KESCO has submitted that a notice was served to the petitioner for appearing before the committee but the petitioner didn't turn up on the specified date and time. The petitioner alleged that he has not received any notice.

The Commission feels that the petitioner should be provided an opportunity for representing his case. KESCO offered no objection in providing another opportunity to the petitioner for representing his case before the appellate committee. Therefore, the Commission directs appellate committee of KESCO to hear the petitioner and amend its order dated 11th January, 2003, if need be. With the concurrence of both the parties, the Commission fixes 12th January, 2003 at 11:00 AM in the "Bijali Ghar office respectively the date, time and venue, for the hearing by the appellate committee, to avoid any confusion regarding the delivery of the notice.

The petition is disposed of accordingly.
