ORDER
(DATE OF HEARING: 06.10.2026)

1. The Commission, vide its earlier Order dated 11.08.2026, granted two weeks' time to UPPCL, UPNEDA and Sh. Rama Shankar Awasthi for filing their respective rejoinders/submissions. On 24.09.2026, UPNEDA filed its rejoinders to the reply of Respondent No. 01,06,09,10 & 12; whereas UPPCL filed its rejoinders on 05.10.2026. On 15.09.2026, Sh. Rama Shankar Awasthi filed its submission.

2. During the hearing today, Md. Altaf Mansoor, learned Counsel of UPPCL submitted that remaining rejoinders were also filed on the previous day however, they were facing difficulty in arranging COD certificates for the Solar Power Plants to comply with the Commission's direction vide Order dated 12.12.2025. The Commission was gobsmacked at this submission and enquired UPPCL as to how they are paying power supply bills without having as essential a document as COD certificate, which is a serious lapse in record keeping. The Commission observed that it is the responsibility of UPPCL to keep project's COD certificate and directed UPPCL to place COD details on affidavit in compliance to the Order dated 12.12.2025. The learned Counsel of UPPCL sought four weeks' time to comply with the Order. Some of the Respondent's stated that submission of Sh. Rama Shankar Awasthi had not been shared with them.

3. Having heard the matter, the Commission grants four weeks' time to UPPCL to comply the Order dated 12.12.2025. Further, the Commission directed Sh. Rama Shankar Awasthi to share his submission with the Petitioners.

   List the matter for next hearing on 17.12.2026.
