ORDER
(DATE OF HEARING: 14.07.2026)

1. The Commission, during last hearing on 07.07.2026, had granted time to the petitioner to obtain necessary instruction regarding amendment or withdrawal of petition in view of direction issued by Ministry of Jal Shakti related to aquatic release of water on account of environmental impact.
2. The learned counsel on behalf of the petitioner submitted that current MYT petition is not required to be amended and the Commission may proceed with tariff determination for FY 2024-29. The issue of aquatic release of water may be adjudicated by the Commission in a separate 'Change in Law' petition and consequential impact may be effected in the True Up petition for FY 2024-29.
3. The learned counsel of UPPCL sought 3 weeks' time to respond to the petitioner submission.

List the matter on 13.8.2026 for hearing.
